

Dear Parents and Carers,

Special Delivery!!!

Year 1 have had a special delivery this week! They had a special letter this week from the Three Little Pigs Mum Pippa. She has asked for help finding her piglets Poppy, Paddy and Pablo. Year 1 are super excited about this ;)

First Award for the Wellbeing Champions

We are so proud of our wellbeing champions this week! They have been awarded their first 'Wellbeing Badge' for running a campaign in school. They started with their anti-bullying training from the Dianna Trust and then have lead a number of activities in school including, wellbeing lunch club, planning Feel Good Friday, delivering anti-bullying assemblies and lessons and developing a Haveley Hey anti-bullying motto (Don't be a Zero, Be a Hero! Take a Stand Against Bullying)

Vocab Parade

Next week on Thursday it's World Book Day. This year we are having a celebration of words and organizing a vocabulary parade. The children dress up depicting a word that they like- there are lots of ideas on the internet to get you started!

Haveley's own Lionesses!

The girl's football team made us super proud on Tuesday when they went to represent the school at a tournament. They played three matches and weren't beaten once! Well done girls!

Attendance

This week our attendance is still around the same level of 92.6% across school. The winning class this week were Mr Heywood's class with a great 96.7%. 5 classes got above our target of 94%!

Year 4 Poetry

This week year 4 have been writing poems! Mr Corcross' class have written some spring inspired Haikus. Here is a selection for you to read:

The warm season starts,
Sunflowers grow instantly,
The sunshine reveals.
By Aaima Khan

All the blossoms grow,
I love to see the flowers,
The sun is beaming.
By Isla Cassidy

The daffodils pop,
The blossom tree is flowering,
The days are warm.
By Poppy Cheetham.
